es the Latest Phases of The War Developments at Home and on Sea.

Washington, D. C., May 5 .- No body except the president, the secretary of the navy and Capt. Crown inshield knows where Admiral Sampson has gone with the seven strongest ships in his fleet—the New York, Iowa, Indiana, Puritan, New York, Iowa, Indiana, Puritan, Cincinnati. Detroit, Marblehead and the dispatch-boat Mayflower. They received instructions Wednesday to prepare for a long voyage and to be ready to sail at an hour s and to be ready to sail at an nour a notice. The naval war board may be able to guess their destination, because the movement is made up-on its recommendation, but the sec-retary of war and the rest of the cabinet do not know, and Admiral Sampson has scaled orders, which Sampson has sealed orders, whilen will not be opened until he is well out to sea, and even then will only be communicated by signal in fragments to the rest of the ships, as occasion may require.

It seems to be pretty well understood that the Cape Verde fleet has returned to Spain. The telegrams

It seems to be provided as the stood that the Cape Verde fleet has returned to Spain. The telegrams from Lisbon to that effect are considered reliable, and therefore the fleet has not gone out to meet the Spanish armada; but two big Spanish cruisers Carlos V. and Alfonso XIII.—are reported to be prowling around Barbadoes, probably looking for the Oregon and Marietta, and it is the prevailing opinion at the navy department that Admiral Sampson has gone down to interview them. It may be, however, that he will pay a visit to San Juan thel Porto Rico, and entertain that place as Admiral Dewey entertained Manila.

ne Oregon and Marietta are The Oregon and Marietta are equal to any two ships in the Spanish navy and ought to give a good account of themselves, but the Nictheroy, which was purchased in Brazil, is said to be without her armament and no better than an ordinary merchantman. The steaming business is becoming quite serious as it takes an expert of long expe-rience to handle it. The demand this week was the best of the year as all the buyers and speculators were active bidders. There has been some setting done, and in eight or ten days more, half the entire crop will be pitched as the few days of hot weather has caused the young of hot weather has caused plants to advance rapidly.

SHE WANTS $5,250.

Negro Woman's Suit Against L. & N. R. R. Company.

Foot and Ankle Were Crushe While Taking Coal From Defendant's Car.

Sally Reed, a colored woman, file

Sally Reed, a colored woman, filed a petition in the Circuit Court Thursday against the Louisville & Nashville railroad company, claiming damages in the aum of $8,250.

In March 1898, so the petition states, the plaintiff was standing with some friends by t'e side of a number of coal cars which had been side tracked on the defendant's tracks in this city. An agent and employer of the defendant was on one of these cars and was giving coal to her friends, throwing; it in lumps from the car to them! Secing this, she alleges, she nasked the defendant's agent to give her some coal. He told her to climb upon the rear of the car and get it. Secing that cars were detached, and fearing no danger, she says she that the cars were detached, and fearing no danger, she says she climbed upon the car to get the coal. Her left foot was resting upon the drawhead of the station-ary coal car. While in this position, ary coal car. While in this position, and while the company's agent was looking at her, she claims that another car driven by a locomotive struck the car on which she was standing with great force, and violence. Her left foot and ankle were caught between the drawheads and crushed. She says that the acci crushed. She says that the accident was due to the carelessness and negligence of the defendants agents in failing to signal or warn her either by ringing a bell or blowing a whistle.
